Are you often in a finite.
The your stone thrilled with joy.
Then I have inty grate easipictons
That you have at home—that Boy.

Are the walls and tables hammered;
Are your nerres and ink upset;
Have two nyes, so bright and rogula
Made your every care forget?
Bave your garden bods a provier.
Who delights but to destroy?
These are well-know ladications
That you have at home—that Boy.

Have you seen him playing circus— With his hivat upon the mat And his heles in anti-air twinkling — For his audience, the cat? Do you ever stop to listen, When his merry, pranks annoy— Listen to a voice that whispers, You were once just like—that Boy?

Have you heard of broken windows, And with nobody to blame? Have you seep a trowswered urchin, Quite unconscious of the same? Do you love s'tessing mixture Of perplexity and Joy? You may have a dozen daughters, But I know you've got—that Boy.
